PONY RIDERS, EARN MONEY WITH YOUR HORSEMANSHIP SKILLS!

THE EMERSON BURR HORSEMANSHIP GRANT

The Emerson Burr Horsemanship Grant will be awarded to the highest scoring participant of each of these four age groups: 8 and under; 9-11; 12-14; and 15-17. Each winner at the zone level receives a $100 grant to use towards educational related expenses.

Riders competing in pony classes are eligible to participate in this program. Each participant will take a short, multiple choice test on horsemanship, which contains no more than 20 questions and respond to a short essay question. A winner will be selected from each age group based on the results. Grant information forms received by winners must be returned to USEF by November 15.

The Emerson Burr Grant will also be offered on a National Level during USEF Pony Finals presented by Collecting Gaits Farm. So start sharpening your horsemanship knowledge! Check with the horse show office to see how you can participate!

EQUUS

FOUNDATION

Where They Go Next is Up to Us

Horses thrill us as athletes, but they also inspire us as teachers, grace our lives as loyal companions, and perform miracles for people with special needs.

Most horses will have multiple homes during their lifetimes, but thousands of horses suffer from abuse, neglect and being shipped off to slaughter each year.

Equine Ambassadors

Our Equine Ambassadors are sport horses whose owners donate a portion of their winnings in equestrian sport competitions to put an end to the abuse by providing more opportunities for America's at-risk and transitioning horses to thrive.

There's no greater gift you can give than to have your equine partner safeguard the future of America's horses as an EQUUS Foundation Equine Ambassador.

EC 7/21/08 Effective 12/1/08

3. Hunter fences to include brush, gate, wall, in and out, aiken, natural rails. Jumper fences to include brush, coop, wall, planks, panels liverpools, natural obstacles and rails.

4. All classes to be judged on performance and soundness unless otherwise noted.

5. Fairfield County Hunt Club and the Horse Show Committee shall not be liable whatsoever for any injury or damage to any person or property of any spectator, visitor, exhibitor, attendant or any other persons, or animals by reason of any event occurring during the show, and it shall be a condition of entry that each exhibitor hold the same as well as their agents and/or employees harmless for any accident or loss which may occur by fire or otherwise.

6. The right is reserved to cancel, combine or divide any classes if entries so warrant. In addition, the right is reserved to refuse any entry (in accordance with GR914) before the start of the competition without being liable for compensation.

7. The right is reserved to alter or change the location of classes if time demands.

8. PRIZE MONEY will be applied to the exhibitor's outstanding account if any, or mailed to the exhibitor as listed on the entry blank within 30 days of the close of the show. Checks void after 60 days. The Horse Show will not stop payment or duplicate awards for any lost check. Prize Money will NOT be redistributed in any class for which there are fewer entries than places awarded. Awards over $600 will not be issued without a Federal ID or Social Security Number. 1099 forms will be issued for all prize money over $600.

9. REFUNDS: No refunds on stalls after the closing date. If a horse becomes injured or ill prior to being shown in any class, entry fees will be refunded upon receipt of a veterinarian's certificate. An office processing fee of $50 per legitimately excused animal will be deducted from the refund. All certificates to be considered must be received by show management before the first day of the show or issued by Fairfield Equine Practice if the injury occurs while on the show grounds.

10. Course diagrams will be posted at least one hour prior to each class. Management reserves the right to restrict the area of the courtesy circle by a MANDATORY LINE. The same will be indicated on course diagrams and a corresponding barrier will be erected in the ring.

32. At Federation licensed competitions horses entering the grounds must be accompanied by documentation of Equine Influenza Virus and Equine Herpes Virus (Rhinopneumonitis) vaccinations within six months prior to entering the stables. Horses not in compliance with this rule may be required to leave the competition grounds upon request by Competition Management. The frequency of vaccine administration should be per the vaccine manufacturers' or veterinarian's recommendations. It is recommended that vaccines are administered by or under the direction of a veterinarian. In the case of vaccines administered by a veterinarian, the exhibitor, upon request by Competition Management, must provide documentation from the veterinarian on documenting that the horse in question received the vaccinations; name of the vaccines and date of vaccine administration. In the case of vaccines administered by a person other than a veterinarian, the exhibitor, upon request by Competition Management, must provide a receipt of the vaccine purchase which is signed by the owner, or agent with care, custody, and control of the horse; name, serial number and expiration date of the vaccine; and date of vaccine administration. In the case of a horse that is unable to receive either of the vaccinations due to a history of adverse reactions, the exhibitor, upon request by Competition Management, must provide a letter from the veterinarian on official letterhead stating that the horse in question cannot be vaccinated due to medical concerns and a log of temperatures taken twice daily for the seven days prior to entering the competition grounds. These horses must also have their temperature taken and logged twice daily while on the competition grounds. The log of temperatures should be provided to the Competition Management, steward, or technical delegate when requested.
