Clubhouse Dining & Special Events

The Fairfield County Hunt Club offers year round clubhouse dining. The Clubhouse facilities underwent a major renovation which was completed in December 2014. The Club's Main Dining room is a beautiful facility with its adjacent verandah which offers additional seating with an all season enclosure. The Polo Room offers formal dining for adults only with a beautiful view of the Club's Show Ring and Polo Field, and the Grill Room offers a casual Country Club atmosphere with indoor and outdoor seating.

A la carte, buffet and casual dining options are offered throughout the year as well as Special Events. The Culinary team at the Hunt Club is full of exceptional talent.

Our goal is to provide a gracious dining experience for the Hunt Club membership through excellence of food, professional service and great atmosphere. Our Club is a place where members will be proud to come and entertain their family and guests.

FAIRFIELD COUNTY HUNT CLUB

Equestrian Activities

The Fairfield County Hunt Club offers riding lessons for beginner, intermediate and advanced riders, either privately or in a small group setting. The Club has successfully met the needs of members, from those who wish to compete at the highest levels to those who wish to enjoy the pleasure of recreational riding. Our highly skilled instructors teach all levels of equitation, hunters, and jumpers.

Lessons are taught on your privately owned horse or one of our Club animals.
The Club maintains 10 - 15 quality horses and ponies for our lesson program.

FCHC can accommodate up to 120 horses. Each horse is treated as a distinct individual. The professional grooms, trainers, and stables manager all monitor each animal closely and create personalized feeding, veterinary and training programs.

The Fairfield County Hunt Club is home to a number of nationally recognized equestrian events. FCHC hosts monthly rated shows, which are recognized by the United States Equestrian Federation (USEF), New England Horsemen's Council (NEHC), and the Connecticut Hunter Jumper Association (CHJA).

On a smaller scale, the Summer Schooling Show Series allows riders who are beginning to show, as well as those who want to fine tune their skills, to get valuable showing experience in a less formal atmosphere.

Children's Summer Program

The Fairfield County Hunt Club operates a state licensed day camp which is exclusive to members. Our program receives top ratings from the State of Connecticut each year during the annual routine inspection. Each season campers ages 3 -12 enjoy an action packed program. The Summer Program runs for seven consecutive weeks giving parents the option to select as many sessions as fit into their children's schedule. Campers are broken down into four age groups. Each age group enjoys a structured schedule of activities ranging from tennis, swimming, field games, arts and crafts, visits from some of the area top specialists with animals, magic, science martial arts and more. Swim team is included with our oldest campers regular schedule. This is a fantastic program that gives campers an opportunity to enjoy a wide variety of activities without ever leaving Club grounds. .

Some of the special activities include:

Archery, Pottery, Culinary Arts, Magic, Martial Arts, Talent Show, Dance Party
